Seattle, Washington | August 28, 2017 – Meridian Capital LLC ("Meridian"), a leading middle-market investment bank and M&A advisory firm, is pleased to announced it has been honored as a 2017 Best Workplace by Puget Sound Business Journal ("PSBJ"). Meridian was one of 80 firms selected from nearly 1,000 nominees. Businesses were judged based on its employees' responses to survey questions related to characteristics such as firm leadership, diversity, company integrity, employee benefits, team collaboration and work-life balance. PSBJ ranked Meridian 6th in the 10-49 employee category.

Meridian, established in 1995 with headquarters in Seattle, Washington is a leading investment bank servicing middle-market companies. Over the past 22 years, Meridian has grown and developed its success by hiring and cultivating a talented team that delivers exceptional results. The management team encourages open, informal communication and social interactions to provide a fun, upbeat culture, along with impromptu catered meals, happy hours/parties, and teambuilding activities. At Meridian, open dialogue and engagement in complete transparency with its employees is highly valued.

Brian Murphy, President and Managing Director of Meridian said, "We are thrilled to be recognized by the Puget Sound Business Journal. Meridian's success is driven by our outstanding team members and their commitment to serving the needs of our clients. The fact the recognition is based on direct feedback from our employees is humbling and extremely rewarding. We have been fortunate to develop a unique culture based on teamwork, transparency and doing the right thing. Our employees live and protect this culture daily. We believe this translates to exceptional results for our clients and long-term firm value."
